SALT LAKE ELKS WANT TO COME HERE

Frank T. Collins of Salt Lake, an Elk of the Mormon capital herd, was in Honolulu recently looking over the Islands with a view to reporting on their attractions to his lodge as to the advantages of the Elks coming here as an excursion party next February. After his departure, a couple of weeks ago, an item appeared in the local papers that Mr. Collins' proposed excursion was "hot air." The Salt Lake Herald, however, gives confirmation of the report that such an excursion is contemplated. The Herald's story on the matter included an interview with Mr. Collins which appeared in the Advertiser a few weeks ago. The Herald of April 13 says:

Plans are in the making for a midwinter excursion of the Elks and their ladies to the Hawaiian Islands next February. Secretary A. W. Raybould of the Salt Lake lodge said last night that while this pleasure trip had been discussed, plans were in no wise perfected. He said that the voyage would be taken probably in February, if at all, and that several hundred would probably go if transportation arrangements can be made. It appears at this time, however, that not more than one hundred or two hundred could make the trip unless a special were chartered.

Last winter the Elks went to Los Angeles for their jaunt. There was a sentiment at that time that the waters of the Pacific looked "mighty fine," and the talk of the Hawaiian voyage started. Recently a good brother Elk has been in Honolulu, and he met a reporter for the Pacific Commercial Advertiser, who certainly came through with the boost for the proposed trip.
